BIG CHECK

PROUD MOMENT

Senior Sidney Gibbons, Class of 2015 and Varsity Track and Field Coach Pat Civitano '96 pictured above as Sidney signs his letter of intent to attend SUNY Albany. Sidney accepted a full scholarship to attend school and run for the Great Danes of SUNY Albany. Our school community is very proud of Sidney as he takes the next step in his journey. Coach Civitano said, "It has been truly an honor and a privilege to coach him and see this young man compete over the years." The young men and women on the team look up to him, and the team will definitely not be the same without his leadership. We wish Sidney nothing but success throughout his college career and beyond."

A VISIT

Recently, the concert band, choral group, and jazz band from Bishop Guertin High School in Nashua, New Hampshire visited McClancy for a combined concert. The performance, in front of the entire student body, included McClancy's choral group, percussion band, and music club. The McClancy groupings were led by Brother Joseph Rocco, President, Andrew Ramsingh '04, and Teresa Busso. Bishop Guertin is part of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart consortium of schools in the US.
