James O'Day '84

Elizabethtown, Pa - July 13, 2015 - Stewardship: A Mission of Faith is pleased and proud to announce Jim O'Day as Vice President of Development.

O'Day brings with him over 25 years experience in development, sales and marketing in the not for profit and for profit arenas. Jim comes to us from the Institute for the Psychological Sciences in Arlington Va., where he served for three years as Vice President, External Affairs. He has also served as President of Heroic Media, and Director of Advancement for the Integer USA Group to round out his non profit experience. Prior to his not for profit work, O'Day served in senior capacities as Vice President Sales and Marketing in the consumer products, defense and homeland security industries.

Jim says: "working for a truly authentic, mission driven and donor focused organization in the non profit field is not work at all. It is a pleasure to be able to introduce others to the mission to share the gifts God has given them whether those gifts are time, talent or treasure."

David Abel, CEO of Stewardship: a Mission of Faith had this to say: "we are pleased to have Jim on board and look forward to a prosperous future with him in the service of the Church!"

Stewardship: A Mission of Faith is a 501(c)3 not for profit encompassing various ministry programs such as The chastity Project, Integrity Restored, Spirit Power, The Porn Effect, Catholic Schools Initiative, Gospel Reflection Groups and Reflections from the Heart and has offices in Elizabethtown, PA., Denver, CO. and Atlanta, GA.

Maurizio, Rudolfo '61

(Brooklyn, NY) - has been retired for the last 10 years after serving as Dean of Students at Manhattan College and Livingston College of Rutgers University. He finished his career as Director of Recruitment at NYC college of Technology.

Please pray for the repose of Terrance Enright '66

"I'm sad to report that our classmate Terry Enright passed away last Friday after a 2 year cancer battle.

Terry and I met on our first day at McClancy and have been very close friends ever since.

He's my son's godfather and I am godfather to his son as well.

He was a big guy with a big heart and feel lucky to have such a special person as a lifelong friend.

Terry has been living in Tampa FL for the past 23 years, he enjoyed fishing and was an avid golfer." Dennis Farrell '66

Issue 2.1

Conducted in the Educational Tradition of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart

BACK TO SCHOOL!

Pictured below is a scene from the first of two orientation days for our new McClancy freshmen (Class of 2019!). The first day is basically fun and "getting to know you" and includes an opening prayer service (shown), small and large group ice breakers, indoor and outdoor activities, and ends with hot dogs. The second day is down to business in dress code with Mass, talks, and a shortened class schedule to meet the teachers and learn expectations, etc. Brother Donald Sukanek coordinated the two days with the volunteer help of 102 upper level students as well as the frosh faculty and moderators. The first co-ed class will graduate this year!

Big Day!

Ryan Castrataro, son of McClancy Principal, Jim Castrataro, entered an essay contest sponsored by the NY Daily News about how he has been influenced by the Yankees. He is pictured above as one of the winners and treated to a Yankees home game on August 26th and accompanied to the field for a pre-game ceremony with Brett Gardner.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY
