First Sunday in Advent

An Advent Message of Pope Francis

For the great human family it is necessary to renew always the common horizon toward which we are journeying. The horizon of hope! This is the horizon that makes a good journey.

The time of Advent that we begin again today returns us to the horizon of hope, a hope that does not disappoint because it is founded on the Word of God. A hope that does not disappoint, simply because the Lord never disappoints! He is faithful!

The time of Advent that the Church celebrates in preparation for Christmas is a new journey of the People of God with Jesus Christ, our Shepherd, who guides us in history towards the completion of the Kingdom of God.

Let us rediscover the beauty of being together along the way: the Church, with her vocation and mission, and the whole of humanity, the people, the civilizations, the cultures, all together on the paths of time.

The journey is never finished. Just as in each of our own lives, there is always a need to restart, to rise again, to recover a sense of the goal of one's own existence.

Mary serves as a model of this spiritual attitude, to this way of being and of journeying in life.

Although she was just a "simple girl," she carried in her heart the hope of God.

In her womb, the hope of God took flesh, became man, and made history: Jesus Christ.

The Rangers have finalized their coaching staff, hiring Doug Brocail as pitching coach and Anthony Iapoco as hitting instructor.

While the hiring of Brocail and new bullpen coach Brad Holman had been expected, Iapoco, who has most recently been in the Chicago Cubs system, is a relatively surprising name.

Iapoco will be assisted by Justin Mashore, who had been the Rangers' Triple-A hitting instructor. Bobby Jones, previously the assistant hitting instructor, will move into the role of replay coordinator.

Iapoco, 42, has spent the last three seasons as the Chicago Cubs' Special Assistant to the General Manager/Player Development, overseeing that club's minor league program while contributing to additional projects for the organization. Prior to joining the Cubs, he spent three seasons as Toronto's roving hitting coordinator from 2010-12 after beginning his coaching career in the Marlins system from 2006-09.

Anthony will also be honored at Alumni Basketball Night on January 9th.
