Prayer Request

Perkowski, Stephen '75 (Randolph, NJ) – In March, 2016, my daughter, Lisa, took final vows with Sisters Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Scranton, PA (IHM Sisters – Scranton, PA). My wife's dad passed away January 9, 2017, spent much of last year as caretakers. He died at age 95. All of our parents are now deceased. Pray for my oldest brother, Edward, who was operated on June 16, 2017 to remove bladder cancer.

Of Note

John Spensieri '17, Salutatorian of the Class of 2017, is pictured above with his parents and Governor Cuomo after having received the Assemblyman James D. Conte Memorial Academic Scholarship by the New York Conference of Italian-American Legislators. John is on to St. John's University where he will pursue a dual major in Politics & Government and History.

Congratulations to our school newspaper The Sentinel.

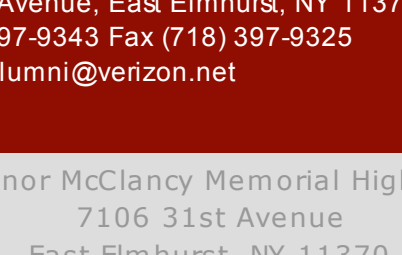

McClancy entered the Tablet Press Awards competition, a newspaper competition between Catholic High Schools from Brooklyn and Queens. There were 10 categories to enter, we met the requirements for five categories and won four awards. The awards are as follows:

- 1st place for Best Sports Story awarded to Melanie Tazzi '19(1st photo below) on her article on "Indoor Track Breaks Records".
- 2nd place for Best Sports Story awarded to Vincent Cicileo '17 (2nd photo below on left) on his article on "A Challenging but Great Season for the Boys' Soccer Team".
- 3rd place for Best Feature Story awarded to Sal DeLuca, Jr. '17 (2nd photo below at right) on his article about "Quentin Holmes: Living the Dream".
- 3rd place in General Excellence awarded to The Sentinel.

The moderator is Mr. Edward Schnepf.
