

EASTER SEASON

Wishing you and your family a Happy Easter Season!

The Sound of Music

This year the McClancy Tryo Threatre Company production of Rodger's & Hammerstein's The Sound of Music was received by the McClancy community and beyond as one of the Tyro's best-ever productions. Directed by Ms. Ann Smith and Musical Director & Conductor, Brother Joseph Rocco, sc, Ed.D, the show featured many new and upcoming McClancy actors as well as several veterans to the McClancy Stage. Each performer, as well as the scenery, sound design, and choreography, exhibited the outstanding talents that our students possess. Anticipation is high as to the identity of next year's Tryo production!

More Alumni News

Just saw I'm MIA on the website.

Since graduation from McClancy, I received an AAS from Queensboro CC then enlisted in the USAF and served 4 years and Honorably Discharged in Alaska. While in the USAF I received an AAS from the CC of USAF.

I retired from the Alaska State Troopers as a State Trooper Investigator in 2002 after 25 years of credited service.

Since retiring I worked for the United Nations Mission in Kosovo and was awarded the UN service medal for Operations in Kosovo.

Lenten Reconciliation

On Tuesday, March 13th a Reconciliation Day for Lent was held for the entire McClancy community. We had seven prayer services during the day so that each religion and physical education class could participate. We were also extremely pleased to have 17 priests from various parishes who were able to assist us for individual confessions.

I also worked for the Pensacola Airport Police and as armed Security for the Trans Alaska pipeline.

I'm married and living in Pensacola, Florida near our youngest daughter and 4 year old grandson. We have a daughter in Houston TX who has 4 sons. We have a son in Lubbock, TX who served in Gulf War II with the USAF and a son in Fresno, CA who has a son and daughter.

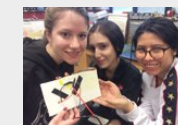

I'm not really missing just hard to keep track of.

Spring Training: Myrtle Beach

The team once again participated in the Mingo Bay Tournament, escaping for a time the Winter That Wouldn't End in the Northeast. Coach Nick Melito '76 was happy to finally get some real playing time as the Crusaders competed with teams from West Virginia, New Jersey, and Myrtle Beach.
