Last Day of Classes for Seniors

After two consecutive years in which inclement weather had forced this annual tradition indoors, it was great to be back outdoors again to honor the graduating Seniors with a barbecue and an opportunity for yearbook signing. Pictured from above are the Seniors coming from their final classes and lining up for hotdogs, hamburgers, and yearbooks.

Honor Society Inductions

15 Juniors were inducted recently into the Societa Onoraria Italia; 15 Juniors were inducted into the Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica; and 58 Juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. Some of these students received a double induction.

Trout Release 2018

Ms. Smith's students (pic below) released 90 native New York brook trout into our own watershed, helping to keep our NYC drinking water clean! So far Msgr. McClancy Memorial HS has raised and released over 450 troutlings into the Cross River in Westchester, NY.

Class of 2018 and Soon To Be Alumni, you're invited to stay connected to McClancy by clicking on the social media links indicated below and by following McClancy through these apps.

Follow McClancy

Shakira Padilla '19 (pictured above in her McClancy shirt) is a newly inducted member of the National Honor Society and is a sprinter on the Track and Field Team. On a previous family trip to Ecuador, Shakira traveled to the southern part of the country which suffers from extreme poverty. She brought along 12 suitcases full of donated clothing from the students and faculty of McClancy which she distributed to those in need. Shakira wishes to continue this endeavor and plans to establish a related foundation and website.

Prayers Please

My father is on a respiratory since April 26th. He's been slowing getting better but not as well as they hoped. We could really use some extra prayers this time around. It will be my daughter's 1st Birthday, his 1st grandchild, on May 21st, and all he was talking before this happened was to be able to make that. He's been sick on and off, but this time it's been harder on our family. Thank you!
