Conducted in the Educational Tradition of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart

AN INVITATION

October 2015

Dear Msgr. McClancy Alumni and Friends,

Through our ministry at Msgr. McClancy, the Brothers of the Sacred Heart likely played a big role in your education, spiritual development and school experience. You knew us as teachers, as administrators, as coaches, and, I hope, as trusted mentors. Those of you who are parents may seek out a Catholic education in the tradition of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart for your own children.

But as well as you think you know us, you may not know all that we do. We Brothers, and our lay partners, have been at Msgr. McClancy since 1956. We've also been in missions in 31 countries around the world for 194 years. We are serving God at home, and at the ends of the earth. Are you, or someone you know, open to a vocation with us? Where can we take you?

The life of a Brother is a fulfilling, joy-filled and adventurous one. Just ask Brother Chris Sweeney, a graduate of Catholic High School in Baton Rouge, La. He taught and coached at Brother Martin in New Orleans, ministered to needy students at St. John-Resurrection Elementary in Montgomery, Ala., was dorm monitor at Saint Stanislaus in Bay St. Louis, Miss., and now works with students in Amatongas, Mozambique, where he raises animals and food to feed orphans of war and the AIDS epidemic. Other Brothers have equally interesting and exciting stories to tell. Just ask!

The Brothers of the Sacred Heart are looking for men of character to minister in our schools and to go to the margins to shape and redefine our mission of service for the future. The next generation of Brothers will embark on a journey of service, supported by community, fueled by prayer.

Is there someone you know who has the heart, but needs a push, an invitation from you, to pursue such a call? Could you muster the courage to invite or encourage a friend, a relative, a fellow alum, possibly even a classmate, to hear and respond to God's invitation?

And what about you? Is your heart being moved? Could you be one of those being called to embrace the life of a Brother on behalf of young people, especially those who are poor and without hope?

Our charismatic Pope Francis, with his infectious joy, visited us in the U.S. recently. He is modeling a radically new way of leading the Church. He declared 2015 a "Year of Consecrated Life," challenging religious men and women across the globe to "wake up the world." What will you do?

We have opportunities for men whose heart is open to a vocation to experience life in our community. Visit us at brothersofthesacredheart.org or give us a call.

Life is calling.

In His Heart,
